"A quick round-up"

With a little help from our friends..... Recently the AAMME received a little assistance from the crane course whilst it was being conducted. As you can imagine it is always good to get live loads. I have been told by a reputable source that this course was a real cracker! (To the course trainees and staff – thanks, all assistance is appreciated)

(John, thanks for the pictures and update)

This little project is nearing completion!

We'll let you know when this is installed and what's in it!

A couple of the lads rearranging the shed!

Any one care to take an educated guess?

So what are we on about.... Have another guess!
